

Preventing stomach cancer in Canada

Stomach cancer is one of the most preventable cancers in Canada.

About 2,500 stomach cancer cases could have been prevented in 2015.

Together, we can reduce the number of stomach cancer cases in the future by increasing treatment for H. pylori infections, decreasing tobacco smoking and increasing physical activity